Office of the Mayor, City Hall,
Richmond, Va., Dec. 15, 1901.
The attention of the public is called to the above important notice of the Superintendent of the Water Works. Although the pumps of the City are being worked to their full capacity, day and night, and the auxiliary steam pump is also at work, the water complaints of inconvenience and deprivation reach this office from all over the city. Sanitary reasons, as well as the discomplaints of inconvenience and deprivation for which exists, demand that special efforts should be made to stop the williary steam the police have been instructed to make special effort to detect and renort to the Folice Justice all householders guilty of wilful waste. The wriste of water for the prevention of frozen pipes is a vigilation of the ordinance and must cease. It is hopeful that when attention is called to the serious results of this waste the people will voluntarily abandon the inexcussible habit. But, at any rate, the police will make special endeavor to prevent it by reporting those guilty to the Police Courand by the imposition of the fine provided by the city ordinances.
